Dear Campbell family,

After nearly fifteen years of ministry together, I write with both gratitude and sadness to share that I have accepted a new call as Worship Director at Colonial Presbyterian Church in Kansas City. My last Sunday at Campbell will be November 9, 2025.

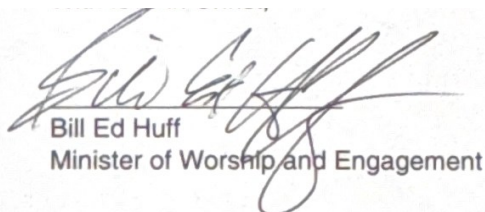

This move allows me to be closer to my wife's work in Mission, KS, and to serve in a church that provides expanded benefits and opportunities for my family. Yet as excited as I am about what's ahead, I can't begin to describe how hard it is to say goodbye to a place that has meant so much to me.

You welcomed me at a time when my life was full of challenges. You became my home, my healing place, and my spiritual family. We've laughed, prayed, cried, and worshiped together—and through it all, I've seen God's Spirit at work in powerful ways. Campbell is a special place, and I will love this church for the rest of my life.

As Campbell enters a new season, I encourage you to lean into the future God has for you, even when it stretches your comfort zone. Change can be hard, but it can also be holy. Keep showing up, keep singing, keep serving. You are part of something sacred here.

I don't believe in long goodbyes—but I do believe in meaningful ones. Please know that my love for you runs deep. You have blessed me beyond words, and I will carry you in my heart wherever I go.

With love in Christ,

Bill Ed Huff
Minister of Worship and Engagement
